HOW CANTRILL STANDS AT HOME.

The Georgetown News, Cantrill's home paper, speaks thusly of him:

"We are opposed to Mr. Cantrill because we are opposed to the politics of our country being dominated by the saloons and other special interests.

"For years without a break, we have seen Mr. Cantrill line up with the liquor forces, from the selection of officials of his home city to the vote on the Webb-Kenyon and Hobson bills in Congress.

"We are opposed to Mr. Cantrill for the part he played in the defeat of Governor Beckham for the United States Senate eight years ago.

"We are opposed to Mr. Cantrill because of the rotten political machinery which he built up in Scott County, which led to the result of elections being based upon the count instead of the vote cast.

"We oppose Mr. Cantrill in the columns of our newspaper because we believe that his election will be detrimental to the things for which we have fought through these columns for the last eight years."

County Chairman J. W. Hamilton, another of the prominent Democrats attacked by Cantrill in his speeches has made the following reply:

"To the Democrats of Scott county:

Congressman J. C. Cantrill in his speech here Saturday, June 20, 1914, said or intimated that I was opposed to a primary to select a postmaster for Georgetown. In his letter of March 28, 1914, he says that I was opposed to a primary, and his speech of 20 he says I wanted a primary but wanted to disfranchise my home people.

"It seems that Mr. Cantrill don't know what I did want. I guess he thinks I am like he was about the tobacco question—first on one side and then on the other. In response to this I publish herewith a letter written to Mr. Cantrill on March 28, 1914 which fully sets out my position relative to that matter."

Cantrill thusly seeing his doom in his home county, has abandoned his light on his own merits, and veritally begs his home people to vote for him for the sake of the rising young men of Scott county. He has addressed them a card in which he says in part:

"So many false reports have been maliciously circulated against me in Scott county that in justice to myself, I am addressing this communication to you.

"At the outset I call your attention to the fact that I am in no way responsible for the controversy now in progress. The men who are fighting me at home began the discussion by making written statements concerning me which were untrue. I am only making a light in self-defense and I am sure that every fair-minded man will concede to me this right.

In all my speeches in the county I have openly met these attacks and answered them in detail but in order that each Democrat in the county might be in-

CANTRILL AT CLAY CITY.

Congressman J. C. Cantrill spoke in this city Saturday night to a well-filled house, a good many of whom were either ladies or Thomas men. He was introduced by H. G. Crabtree, who made a better speech than Mr. Cantrill. In the beginning Mr. Cantrill paid his respects to the newspapers of the district, and The Clay City Times in particular he denounced in no uncertain terms. He said he was here to refute the charges made by these papers. This was just what the Times had urged him to do, but his saying that he was going to do so was all that he did for he never answered a single charge nor did he attempt to do so. Why didn't he? Because he knew he couldn't. The Times had told the truth and he knew it, thus he contented himself by making his set speech, interspersing it occasionally with vilification of the Clay City Times, which he always referred to without calling its name, but when he spoke of a local paper in this town, all knew what he meant.

He attempted to answer a few of the things Mr. Thomas charged him with. Mr. Thomas charged him with aiding in the election of Bradley. To offset this he said he had raised $10,000 to help elect a Democratic Legislature. He didn't say though, that this was whiskey money raised for the purpose of electing whiskey members only who were to vote for some Democrat other than Beckham, if possible, and if not possible, to vote for Bradley as they did do. These are the kind of Democrats Cantrill always helps to elect. He didn't deny for once aiding in the election of Bradley after the Legislature met.

He said again that Mr. Thomas had got him to make a deal with the liquor people of Winchester and Mr. Sterling to support Mr. Thomas, and that he did. Mr. Thomas, it will be remembered, had no opposition in either the primary or general election, and in answer to our query to him to name his opponent and tell why he didn't expose this deal when he was running against formed, I am writing this article. The attacks that have been made upon me have been made by men who have had in Scott county the highest honors that the Democrats of the county could bestow upon them and by several men who now hold high offices in the county.

I feel that these men, in attacking me as their fellow-county man, have acted unfairly and without any just cause whatever. I have always tried to serve loyally my county and my party. If I am to be struck down by my home county men what hope is there in store for any other young man in the county who desires to serve his county and his people? If it is to be the policy in Scott county for a young man's own people to fight him, there is little hope ahead for the young men of energy and ambition. What hope can the fathers of our boys have if their sons are to have a knife driven into their back in the hands of a county man?

Thomas four years ago, he remained silent, thereby admitting that he couldn't.

He produced a purely business letter Mr. Thomas had written (while in the Senate, he said) to a whiskey concern, in which it appeared Mr. Thomas was dickering for some by-product for cattle feed, and aimed to make it appear as though Mr. Thomas as Senator was communicating with the whiskey people, all of which was for the purpose of misleading the voters. The truth of it is, doubtless, the whiskey people are not only furnishing Mr. Cantrill with private business letters to attempt to fool the people, but they are furnishing him with thousands of dollars to buy his way back into Congress. This is evident if it cannot be proved.

The remainder of his argument was a reiteration of former speeches, all of which has been disproved to the satisfaction of all but those who are of the class "convince a man against his will and he is of the same opinion still" with the exception, however, of some other issues at which Mr. Thomas is also supporting.

Mr. Cantrill suddenly became very warm and discontinued his address before getting to answer the charges of the Clay City Times as he said he was there for the purpose of doing when he started.

Immediately upon his conclusion the editor of the Clay City Times appealed to Cantrill's managers to see Mr. Cantrill and get permission to reply to the vicious remarks made upon him. He was very modestly denied such privilege. He then asked for an introduction to Mr. Cantrill and this was also denied. Why were we thus so disrespectfully treated? The answer comes, "to save the humiliation of Cantrill" and at least it was a wise move for his benefit.

Mr. Scott Passes Away.

Mr. Chas. Scott, the affable General Passenger Agent of the L. & E. Ry., died in Lexington Saturday night after a brief illness. Mr. Scott had been in declining health for the past year, but was able to attend his duties in the railroad office until the week he died. Burial Monday in the Lexington cemetery. His wife and three children survive. He has no other people in America.

Mr. Scott was born in Scotland, but came to this country a number of years ago. He came to Clay City back in the 80's. He had lived in Canada several years before coming to Clay City. Though he moved from Clay City a number of years ago, he retained a most kindly feeling for the old town, and it was through his efforts that the beautiful little park in this city is maintained by the L. & N. He was a man of a kind heart and always had a smile and obliging manners for everyone he met. If all officers of the railroads of this country were of the heart and disposition of Mr. Scott, there would be no strikes nor need for regulation by law. He did justice to every man which can hardly be said of most railroad officials. Mr. Scott was a large stock-holder and a director in the Clay City National Bank.

STANTON NEWS.

Mr. Roht. Stone is on the sick list this week and confined to his bed.

Mrs. Lulu Treney, of Cincinnati, visited her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Scott last week.

Mr. James Phillips who has been visiting his brother here for several days, has returned to his home in Jeffersonville, Indiana.

Rev. A. M. Lowe, Postmaster of Russell, was in Stanton Friday electioneering for J. Campbell Cantrill in his race for Congress.

Mr. John M. Steck, of Maryland, and who is on his way to Japan, stopped off and visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Ewen.

Mr. Joel Hampton of the Mt. Canaan neighborhood was buried last Saturday. He leaves a wife and some children. He was about fifty-five years of age.

Misses Mabel Ewen, Allie Vaught, Anna Hamilton, Messrs. Robt. Conlee and Morgan Lyle, Jr. went to the Natural Bridge Sunday and had a nice time.

Mrs. Lulu Houston who has been visiting her parents for several days returned to her home in Louisville Tuesday. She was accompanied as far as Lexington by her mother, Mrs. M. A. Phillips.

Mr. Paul Derthick organized a splendid Sunday School of Flat Woods in Morgan county last Sunday. He will attend a Sunday School Rally on Rock Lick in Breathitt county this coming Sunday.

J. H. Dawson, traveler for the Winchester Roller Mill, was in town this morning. He has just returned from a trip in Estill and Lee counties and says Thomas is very strong there and will certainly carry both of these counties.

Miss Allie Vaught, of Somerset, and Miss Anna Hamilton, of Richmond, are visiting Miss Mabel Ewen this week. All three were teachers at London last year in the same school. Mabel will return to London for the coming year.

Mr. Fred Ware and wife of Hardwick's creek, are visiting at the home of Mr. Ide Boone. Mr. Ware is contemplating on moving to Stanton that his daughter might attend our College. We shall be glad to welcome such a splendid citizen as Mr. Ware.

Mrs. Press Ewen was removed to her home this week. She is far from well but it was thought she would be as well off there as at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Albert Skidmore. Mrs. Ewen had expressed a longing to be at the old home in her illness.

Among the recent marriage licenses taken out at Stanton are Emmet Gilbert and Miss Rosa Adams of this place; Mr. Bun Means and Miss Maggie Woosley, of McCormick; and Mr. Harvey Wells of Clay City and Miss Mary White, daughter of Mr.

John G. White, of Winchester.

The ladies of Stanton have set aside the 5th day of August to the people of Powell county as a clean up day in the Stanton cemetery. They ask that everybody who has any of their loved ones buried in this cemetery come out this day and give their time to beautifying the cemetery. And if you cannot come yourself they request that you send a man. Let everybody bring their dinner on this day. The writer has called the attention of the people of Powell county several times to this cemetery and what a beautiful place it could be made with a little work. We are glad these good women have sent out this appeal and we trust that there will be a ready response. Do not forget the day and please send word out to all you know who have loved ones buried there.

Mr. J. Campbell Cantrill addressed the voters of Stanton last Friday in the interest of his race for Congress from the Seventh District. His whole speech was defending his record on the whiskey traffic. "A man is in pretty hard place when he has to defend his vote on the liquor question. If he votes in its favor why defend it? Mr. Cantrill said that he was a better temperance man than his opponent, Hon. Claude Thomas, because when the Davis bill came up he voted in favor of it and had the records from Congress to prove it. But he failed to state to the people that this Davis bill was an amendment to the Webb-Kenyon bill. The Judiciary Committee had voted adversely to this bill and all the leading members of the House voted against it and all the temperance people were against the Davis amendment because it would have destroyed the effect of the Webb-Kenyon bill. This was why Mr. Cantrill voted for the Davis bill, not because it was a temperance measure but because it was in favor of the whiskey gang. Mr. Cantrill opposed the Webb-Kenyon bill because he said "the states have no right to interfere with the government in the interstate shipment of liquor." And at Stanton he said "he was opposed to the Hobson National Prohibition Resolution because the government has no right to interfere with the states." We would like for Mr. Cantrill to harmonize these two statements. And then he made a spectacular rush back to Washington to introduce a resolution asking for a speedy vote on National Prohibition because he thought there was a temporary opportunity to defeat that measure which proves his very close touch with and his ready response to the whiskey people. Mr. Cantrill tried to link up his opponent with the saloon people of Paris. This has been disproven by Mr. Thomas and by everybody who knows him. The great Thomas Club in Bourbon county say that Mr. Thomas' name cannot be linked up with the liquor gang in any way or at any time. There are a thousand members on the Thomas Club in Georgetown and Scott county who are opposed to Cantrill because they say he is a whiskey man. The latest reports from the papers are that Thomas is sweeping everything before him, that the tide is turning strong in his favor.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

We are authorized to announce Claude M. Thomas as a candidate for Congress, from the Seventh Congressional District, subject to the action of the Democratic primary. Election to be held Saturday, August 1, 1914.

The law-abiding citizens of Woodford county, evidently having been apprised of the flood of liquor money coming into that county to purchase votes for Cantrill have made up a nice purse of money to prohibit it. They offer a reward of $100 for the arrest and conviction of any and every person either buying or selling votes on primary election day Saturday.

The good people of Woodford are tired of liquor domination in politics. Their favorite son, Harry Shoberth, a royal son of temperance, was struck down two years ago while on the bed of affliction and an announced candidate for Congress, by that great self-praised and self-styled apostle of temperance, Cantrill, when Cantrill, ignoring the State primary election law, had his Committee call a primary of his own while Shoberth was so sick in bed he could hardly move. Mr. Shoberth was forced to withdraw, being unable to make a canvass of the district. This was when Mr. Cantrill disfranchised the Democrats of Clark, Estill, Lee and Powell.

Why did Mr. Cantrill not wait until the August State primary? Because he was afraid Shoberth would be well, and with Clark, Estill, Lee and Powell coming into the district, he knew he would meet justice and be defeated.

Many tell us they are for Beckham because he was so brutally betrayed before when he was the nominee of the party and Bradley was elected. If this is sufficient to vote for Beckham, and it surely is, it is sufficient cause to vote against Cantrill who took up headquarters during the contest next to Bradley and remained at his post, going in and out of Bradley's headquarters until Bradley was elected over Beckham with the aid of four Democratic traitors. It has always been admitted that Mr. Cantrill made the deal between these four traitor Democrats and Bradley. Then a vote for Cantrill is an endorsement of this wicked deal if you do not intend it as such.

Cantrill kept the Democrats of Powell, Estill, Lee and Clark from voting in the Democratic primary for Congress two years ago. We charged this weeks ago and Mr. Cantrill didn't deny it in his speeches in this county Saturday, nor did he attempt to because he knew it was so.

To the Democratic Voters of the Seventh Congressional District:

This race for Congress is won, and I will be nominated for Congress if election bribers and thieves are kept from plying their nefarious practices at the polls on August 1, and the votes are counted as cast.

The right of the people to control their representative, rather than have it bought and paid for by the agents of the liquor interests who are at work in many precincts in the district and will continue their work until the vote is counted and the result announced, is in the balance.

I do not want the nomination unless I am the choice of a majority of the Democrats of this district. I want every man who has the right to vote to be given that right, and to have his ballot counted as cast, and if I am not the choice of the honest Democrats of this district, I will cheerfully accept the result. But I do not want, nor do I intend to have the decision made by bribe givers and bribe takers, or by corrupt election officers who falsify the returns. I appeal to every Democrat in the district who believes in fair elections, and honesty in control of all public offices, and is opposed to continued saloon and liquor domination in Kentucky politics, to go to the polls on August 1 and to see that the vote is fairly cast and honestly counted.

My opponent, Mr. Cantrill, is the representative of the liquor interests, which will contribute any amount to continue him in Congress. I have reason to believe that a large fund has been raised to secure the vote of the vicious and morally unfortunate for Mr. Cantrill.

Victory for these interests means assurance to America that the famous Ashland district is still subject to the control of the liquor interests, and that their representative from this district will continue to have a place on the Committee on Rules of the House of Representatives where he can block legislation demanded by the temperance forces.

So anxious am I that there shall be a fair election, the result of which will be the honest expression of the honest Democrats of this district, and so desirous am I of doing my part that I offer and will pay five hundred dollars as a reward for the first apprehension and conviction of any one who commits a crime on election day, whether in or out of the booth, whether by the purchase or by the sale of a vote, or by the falsification of a return. I will pay two hundred and fifty dollars as a reward for the second apprehension and conviction of any man guilty of a crime on election day; one hundred and fifty for the third apprehension and conviction, and one hundred for the fourth.

In whatever county of the twelve composing the Seventh Congressional District the crime occurs, and the conviction takes place, this offer applies.

In the primary on August 1 the Federal as well as the State courts have jurisdiction, and this offer is made subject to conviction in either State or Federal courts.

The people without the money of the liquor interests, or the patronage of the Federal machine have won this race and should not be cheated of their victory.

CLAUDE M. THOMAS.

Don't forget the Primary Saturday.

Clay City, Ky.,
July 28th, 1914.

At a meeting of the Board of Directors of the Clay City National Bank, of, Clay City, Kentucky, held this day the following tribute of respect to the memory of our respected associate, Charles Scott, who died at Lexington, Kentucky, on July 25th, 1914, was made a part of the records of the bank:

Mr. Scott assisted in the organization of and became the first president of this institution in the year 1889, and served as a member of the Board of Directors, of which he was Chairman, continuously until his death.

The value of the services rendered by him to this Bank can not be expressed in mere words; his counsel and advice was always tempered with discretion and equity which won for the bank and for himself many friends and the highest esteem of the members of this Board; and we shall at all times remember him as being big and strong and true, yet, as gentle, and kind as a child; knowing no wrong; doing no wrong; his path that of justice, honor and integrity, and throughout all his life as pure as the flowers he loved to plant and grow.

In the death of Mr. Scott this Board has lost its oldest and most respected member; his adopted city, Lexington, has lost a faithful friend and supporter; his church a devoted and conscientious member; but more than this and more than all else, is the loss to his good wife and children, to whom we extend our heartfelt sympathy and we commend their lives to that care, that love, that peace which comes from a Gracious God.

When Mr. Cantrill blames Mr. Thomas for Bourbon county going against him four years ago, he should ask himself why there are 1,000 members of the Thomas Club in Scott county? Why can he not control the Democrats in his own county?

THOMAS CLUB OF CLARK COUNTY.

Winchester, Ky.
To the Democratic Voters of 7th Congressional District:

On the first day of August you will vote for a candidate for Congress from the Ashland District. The two candidates, as you know, are Claude M. Thomas, of Bourbon county, and Congressman J. Campbell Cantrill, of Scott county.

Two years ago Campbell Cantrill took snap judgment on you and gave you no voice in the selection of your candidate, and practically disfranchised you.

On August 1st you will have a chance to vote for a man who is your neighbor, and has always stood by Clark county when she needed his assistance. He has never cast anything but a Democratic ballot.

When Mr. Thomas was Senator from this district he voted for every temperance measure that came before the house. On the contrary Mr. Cantrill has voted for every whiskey bill that has come before the House since he has been representing your district.

It is generally conceded by all well-thinking men that Campbell Cantrill, Mr. Thomas' opponent, defeated ex-Gov. J. C. W. Beckham for U. S. Senator and elected W. O. Bradley, a Republican.

Fellow Democrats of the Ashland district, who do you prefer to vote for as a Democrat, a man that has never scratched the Democratic ticket or a man that has elected a Republican and stands for the whiskey interests?

Our last request is, to go to the polls and have your friends go on August 1st, and vote for Claude M. Thomas for Congressman from your district.

Respectfully yours,
D. L. Pendleton,
Chairman Thomas Club.

Hoopee Boy!

You missed the time of your life by not being at our speaking list Saturday. As soon as the sun started on her daily march across the continent on that glorious morning about 500 yeomanry of Powell and adjacent counties started for our quiet little village nestled among the hills of the Red River valley, to hear a speech from the lips of our most worthy Congressman, Hon. J. C. Cantrill, who was on hand early in the morning. The Bible says that a worm cut down Jonah's gourd vine and the sun beat down on the good old man's head, but no worm was strong enough to cut down that beech grove that shaded the vast crowd that came to hear the gospel of truth delivered by a man that knoweth whereof he speaks. His speech was the best ever delivered in this county by any candidate of this party. Plenty to eat on the ground and it was prepared to a queen's taste. There was not a cross word spoken among the vast assemblage. Everybody there listened to hear something and shoo' 'n't they did. As long as J. C. Cantrill has been at Washington not one of his constituents have ever complained that he would not take up any matter of importance that they asked him to look after. And now they are trying to beat him on a question purely local. Because they are yelling Whiskey! Whiskey! from the top of Gritters' Ridge to the mouth of Hood's branch and from the headwaters of Cane creek to a crawfish hole on Lubegrud. And there is not a 10-year-old school boy in this Congressional District that does not possess business sense enough to know that this is not a whiskey fight. Now as a parting word let us go to the polls early, stay late, and about 8:30 p. m. on Aug. 1, you will hear the welcome plaudit "Cantrill is the nominee." "Bohema."

Good vs. Evil.

"The ill wind that blows nobody good" is of the past, but at times we may think that it is true today from the way the various trusts, combines and our officers of rank work together against the welfare of our great common people.

For instance, Cantrill was elected to work against the whiskey interests; but after the election he supported the whiskey men in every measure.

And now he has the audacity to come to us for support again with more promises, and is also trying to patch up his old record, and accuse Thomas of things that never happened.

Cantrill offered us an insult Saturday at Bowen by his barbecue, thinking perhaps that we were so ignorant that we would relish it as a treat and would rally to his support, but we are sure he has lost some of his followers.

If Thomas is elected; as we are almost certain he will be, he will not have to sell out to some trust to regain the money lost in his election.

Then we can look for honest legislation and a true and honest worker for the people.

Let us look at the record of Cantrill and Thomas and compare them and govern ourselves accordingly.

J. H. Howell.

HUSBAND RESCUED
DESPAIRING WIFE

After Four Years of Discouraging Conditions, Mrs. Bullock Gave Up in Despair. Husband Came to Rescue.

Catron, Ky.—In an interesting letter from this place, Mrs. Bettie Bullock writes as follows: "I suffered for four years, with womanly troubles, and during this time, I could only sit up for a little while, and could not walk anywhere at all. At times, I would have severe pains in my left side.

The doctor was called in, and his treatment relieved me for a while, but I was soon confined to my bed again. After that, nothing seemed to do me any good.

I had gotten so weak I could not stand, and I gave up in despair.

At last, my husband got me a bottle of Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I commenced taking it. From the very first dose, I could tell it was helping me. I can now walk two miles without its tiring me, and am doing all my work."

If you are all run down from womanly troubles, don't give up in despair. Try Cardui, the woman's tonic. It has helped more than a million women, in its 50 years of continuous success, and should surely help you, too. Your druggist has sold Cardui for years. He knows what it will do. Ask him. He will recommend it. Begin taking Cardui today.
